NOTICE CONCERNING INVESTIGATIVE REPORTS

Center Stage Productions reserves the right to request investigative background reports in connection with your application for volunteering, or at any time during the course of your volunteering. Additionally, in the event that claims or disputes between you and CSP are filed with any third parties, those parties may request an investigative background report.

The types of reports that may be requested from consumer reporting agencies under this policy include, but are not limited to, credit reports, criminal records checks, court records checks, driving records, and/or summaries of educational and employment records and histories. The information contained in these reports may be obtained by a consumer reporting agency, from public record sources, or through personal interviews with current or former employers, coworkers, neighbors, friends, associates, or other acquaintances.

PHOTOGRAPHY RELEASE

We like to take pictures of our participants and volunteers having fun! By registering, participating, volunteering, or attending workshops, activities, and productions, you agree to let us use photos in our publications, advertisements, website, and other public relations materials. If you do not want your photo used, you will need to submit a written request to the CSP Board.

By signing and dating this application, I attest that all information provided is true and accurate, and give Center Stage Productions permission to contact my references. I also understand CSP's policies concerning investigative reports and photography.
